SHERIFF EDWARD N. BONNER RELEASES THE FOLLOWING:

At about 7:35 p.m. Thursday night, 01/25/01, a solo gunman robbed the Foothill Market located at 13120 Lincoln Way in Auburn. The robber, described as a white male, 27 to 30 years of age, displayed a handgun at the market's owner and demanded money from the register.

The robber was distracted by a customer who entered the store during the robbery which allowed the owner and a store clerk to flee the store. The suspect removed an undisclosed amount of cash from the store register and was last seen walking away from the store.

A few minutes later a male suspect forced his way into a home on Flood Road, very near the Foothill Market. He displayed a handgun and ordered the lone female resident to the floor. The suspect remained in the home for a few minutes, looking out a window. He left without making any further threats.

Sheriff's detectives have determined that the suspect who committed the robbery is the same suspect who forced his way into the home on Flood Road.

The suspect is believed to be a white male, late 20s to early 30s, 5'7" to 5'9" tall, with shoulder length or longer dirty blond hair.

The suspect was seen getting into a red, 2-door, small size car with square headlights and clear fog lights.

It is believed the suspect most closely resembles the composite drawing of the suspect wearing the beanie cap.

Anyone with information about the suspect(s) or observed anything in the area at the time are encouraged to call the Placer County Sheriff's Office, 530/889-7800.

Sgt. Bob McDonald
